Exercise 7

Read the passage and answer the questions in full sentences.

Social services are service provided by the government and non- government organizations to make people's lives better.

Examples of social services are education, transport, health, security, water supply and communication.

Different people provide different services for example; teachers provide education service, the police and army provide security, doctors and nurses provide health service while telephone companies and news reports provide communication services.

When all the services are well provided, people will have good health, be literate. Live peacefully and there will be easy flow of information in our sub-county.

Therefore, our leaders should make sure that all the services are well provided.

Questions:

1. What are social services?
2. List down four examples of social service in our sub-county.
3. What group of people provided transport in our sub-county?
4. Why do you think some services are not well provided in our sub-county?
5. Why are doctors important in our sub-county?
6. Draw, name and colour any four people who provide social service in our sub-county.

Exercise 8

Dialogue: corruption.

Angelo: Hullo Amos, how are you?

Amos: I'm alright, thank you.

Angelo: We're going to school but do you know that there are some children who can't go to school?

Amos: Yes some parents can't afford school fees.

Angelo: You're right. There is government program that helps such children and parents. Parents don't pay school fees. It is called Universal Primary Education.

Amos: That's very good because every child can now get the education service.

Angelo: There are some corrupt officials who misuse the government funds and even sell medicine in hospitals.

Amos: Then those should be reported and punished by courts.

Questions:

1. What is dialogue about?
2. Who are talking in the dialogue?
3. Where are Angelo and Amos going?
4. Why don't some children go to school?
5. The program in government schools where parents don't pay fees for their children is called
